

Re Mrs. Hall

September,
Twenty-third, 1926.

Timothy N. Pfeiffer, Esq.,
Counselor at Law,
120 Broadway,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:-

Mrs. Amelia Ives, 169 College Avenue, informed me that on the Saturday afternoon that the bodies of Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills were found that she went to Mrs. Hall's home between 3 and 4 P. M. to offer her condolences; that her <sup>nephew</sup> ~~son~~, Loyal T. Ives, was with her at the time; that she talked with Mrs. Hall for some little time and did not notice any scratches or other marks upon her face; that one thing she recalls Mrs. Hall said was "Edward might have been indiscreet but I know he was not wicked."

Yours truly,

David Thompson.
